

UPDATE

May 2015 Volume 46 Number 5

May 3:

"Wishing Well for Water"

Uncle Eddie & Robin will be providing the program. Through discussion and music, we will be exploring the critical importance of clean water, and how protecting public water sources honors and respects the interdependent web of which we are part. Our facilitators have been active in protecting the Ohio River, and will share their experiences.

May 10:

"The Music of Mothering"

Lead by Lisa Bohn, DRE. Join us for our annual Mother's Day service, brought to you by the participants and supporters of the Religious Education program. We will sing the music of mothering and we hope you'll sing along!

May 17:

"Don't Just Stand There, Do Something"

Rev. Gary Batey will speak. Understood fully, the story of Jesus ascending to heaven alerts people of faith that the work of healing, nurturing, enlightening, reconciling, and renewing life on this earth requires our active participation. Walking by whatever measure of divine light has been entrusted to us, we have the opportunity to join with others who have accepted the invitation to be bearers and sharers of eternal light and life, working together for the good of this planet and all its inhabitants.

Music: Andrew Hudson

Special Collection: We Care Manatee

May 24:

"What Flowers Say: A Time for Memories, Joy & Hope"

Rev. Dee Graham will speak. Bring a few blossoms & come for Flower Communion! Laughter Therapist Josie Melcher will join the Rev Dee Graham for this special Sunday when we honor our veterans and plant the seeds of peace!

Music: Weintraub Duo

May 31:

"Let Us Be One"

Mindy Simmons will be providing the program. We as Unitarian Universalists should be striving to connect as a unified congregation; meeting on common ground, to accomplish common goals. Our seven principles are key ideals to consider as we come together in fellowship and grow our UU communities.
