

December 6:

"Illumination: How to Ignite Hope in Festivals of Light"

Rev. Dee Graham will speak. Don't take lightly the beginning of Advent and the Festivals of Light that converge in December. Hope connects our faith communities during this season, even in Florida where the most obvious sign of winter may be earlier sunsets. We'll investigate how common religious threads diverge and emerge with promise during this holiday season.

December 13:

"How Much is Enough?"

Rev. Fred Rhines will speak. Rev. Rhines will be discussing the subject of greed and how much we should desire of things. A good subject for the busy Christmas season.

Music: Eleanora Lvov

December 20:

"Goodness & Mercy: Discovering the Magic of Darkness at Christmastime"

Rev. Dee Graham will speak. Take heart! Whether you light Christmas trees or Winter Solstice bonfires, 'tis a season of magic. This time of more darkness attunes us to the birth of Jesus, a new hope, and the spiritual hibernation from which new dreams and ideas are born. We'll consider how we can be our best selves in this season of darkness and hope.

December 27:

"Spirituality and The Beatles"

"Rev. Faerie" Elaine Silver will present this program. These four lads from Liverpool, England had an immense influence on the generation of the 50's and 60's, which continues to touch future generations. In 1968, they embarked on a life-changing visit to India where they learned and practiced Transcendental Meditation (TM) with the Maharishi Mahesh Yogi. This began a journey into Self-awareness which was shared through their music. Join Elaine in her Spiritual Tribute to The Beatles!
